Forecast For Southwest England
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1600 on Thursday 07 Oct 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Often rather cloudy but mostly dry. Feeling warm.

This Evening and Tonight:
The majority of places remaining dry through the evening and overnight with variable, often large amounts of cloud. Some fog patches may form where any clear spells persist. Very mild. Minimum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Friday:
Another grey, in places foggy start but bright or sunny spells developing in most places by the afternoon. Warm in the sunshine. A few showers possible across eastern counties later. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Early fog Saturday clearing to leave a mainly dry afternoon with warm sunny spells. Cloudier overnight into Sunday with a few showers, before the sunshine returns later and for Monday.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.